

Mohamed Sheshu Sheriff
Executive Secretary
African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) National Secretariat in Sierra Leone

Mohamed Sheshu Sheriff is a strategic governance reformer, visionary leader, and resilient institution-builder whose career reflects foresight, innovation, and impact. He currently serves as Executive Secretary of the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) National Secretariat in Sierra Leone, where he has transformed governance assessments into actionable national policies, embedding citizen voices into planning and budgeting. Under the directive of His Excellency, the President of the Republic of Sierra Leone, he successfully coordinated the Second-Generation Country Review Mission, engaging more than 5,000 citizens nationwide and producing findings that informed the Medium-Term National Development Plan (2024–2030).

Sheriff's earlier career includes distinguished service as Senior Political Adviser at the U.S. Embassy in Freetown, where he worked directly with senior Sierra Leonean and U.S. officials. He directed governance programs on accountability and inclusive political systems, strengthened bilateral relations, and contributed to justice sector reforms, human rights advocacy, and conflict resolution. His diplomatic acumen was pivotal in resolving Sierra Leone's largest commercial dispute at the International Commercial Court, safeguarding national interests and investor confidence.

Academically, Sheriff is a PhD Candidate in Sustainable Development and Diplomacy at Euclid University, holding a Master of Science in Diplomacy and International Affairs, a Master of Arts in Peace and Development Studies, and a Bachelor of Social Science in Peace and Conflict Studies. He has also completed advanced training in political advisory, conflict negotiation, leadership, and governance reporting.

His excellence has been recognized through multiple U.S. Department of State awards, including the Superior Honor Award, Meritorious Honor Awards, and Extra Mile Awards. Sheriff's proven record of strategic foresight, results orientation, and international collaboration positions him as an asset to any global institution committed to governance, peacebuilding, and sustainable development.
